WebBank Adds Woods to the Roster

Salt Lake City, UT. February 9, 2006 - WebBank, a Utah-based Industrial Bank, continues to grow to meet market demand for commercial financial solutions. WebBank announced today the appointment of another Business Development Officer . John R. Woods, Jr. joins WebBank to help develop Small Business Administration (SBA) and Commercial loan partnerships. Woods brings extensive financial experience and contacts, criteria also noted among the previous hires. Woods was formerly the VP of Finance for Mountainwest Telecomm and spent 13 years in the Larry H. Miller organization. His experience encompasses commercial lending and leasing, SBA lending, acquisition, mortgage, sales team training and even lobbying.

Woods experience demonstrates the ability to create programs as he has established in-house leasing and SBA certification as well as treasury and insurance businesses for former employers.

According to President and CEO Gerry Smith "we are delighted to have John on board. As with our other recent additions, he brings a wealth of local market knowledge. We feel we have the SBA team in place to serve the market with a high touch, personal approach."

WebBank Summary: As an industrial bank chartered under Utah law, WebBank may engage in a full range of national banking activities including issuing credit cards, making commercial loans and taking deposits that are federally insured.

More information about WebBank can be found at www.webbank.com. Woods can be reached directly at (801) 993-5025.
