Press Release

WebBank Hires SBA Business Development Officer

Salt Lake City, UT January 30, 2006:

WebBank, a Salt Lake City industrial bank, has named Marshall Benowitz a Small Business Association (SBA) Business Development Officer. Benowitz brings significant years of management and retail experience to the position as well as a wealth of commercial real estate knowledge. Prior to joining WebBank Benowitz served as a principal and general manager of a retail business for 15 years and has been a commercial real estate agent since 1981. Gerry Smith, President and CEO of WebBank, said “WebBank is excited to have someone with Benowitz’s commercial real estate background as it is a large source of SBA referrals.” Marshall has served on the board of directors for the Utah Transit Authority and as director of the Retail Committee of the Ogden Chamber of Commerce as well as the Commercial and Industrial Committee of the Salt Lake Board of Realtors. Benowitz was voted “Commercial Agent of the Year” by Gump & Ayers Real Estate and is a lifetime member of the Million Dollar Club with the Salt Lake Board of Realtors.

WebBank provides niche financing. Through its Industrial Bank charter, it offers a nationwide platform for commercial and consumer private-label financial products and services.
